Regina Maris Reunion 2013

The Jolly Boat

The Official Newsletter of the Regina Maris Reunion No. 3 Jan 2013

The Shadow Line (Smurga Cienia) 1976. Polish/BBC production. On location in the Black Sea. Production still : Muzeum Kinematografli w Lodzi.

The Reunion Starts Now!

A look at the Crew List-Timeline at the end of this newsletter will show you that our numbers are growing. Over 100 of you have signed up to at least see what's happening with this reunion. The Organizing Crew is meeting within the next few weeks to work on local Gloucester logistics. Besides working on the local logistics, (like securing a local theatre for "Movie Night") we will be discussing setting aside time blocks for semi-formal events created and organized by you.

Here's an idea to supply just a bit of structure to these "crew organized" time blocks . Take a hour and a half time period and put a group of "subject experts" from different years (or decades) of Regina's history at the front of the room and have them talk to each other on the selected topic. Share pictures on the topic. Open it up to comments and questions from the audience (that's us, too). Call these sessions "Roundtables". Here are a few possible Roundtable topics:

- Regina Maris Film & TV Roundtable
- Masters and Mates (and Bo's'uns) Roundtable
- Scientists Roundtable

Please share with us your ideas for additional Roundtables or other reunion events at: reginamaris1908@gmail.com

One of the best ways you can help with planning is to make sure that you have submitted your complete profile, especially your dates under sail on Regina and your Role(s) while aboard. Please take a moment to punch the UPDATE MY PROFILE button to complete your profile right now.

For those of you that just joined us this issue of the Jolly Boat, good news. Archived versions of Jolly Boat No. 1 nov 2012 and Jolly Boat No. 2 dec 2012 can be accessed via the Buttons at the end of this newsletter.

Let the reunion begin!

Cheers All,

Steve Nelson
student, deckhand, 3rd mate 1979-1980.

Reunion Events-Regina Maris Film Festival

Friday 6 September

In honor of Regina's frequent appearance as a leading character on the big and small screens, Friday evening September 6 will be the Regina Maris Film Festival. We will all gather at a local Gloucester movie theatre to watch films and TV specials with refreshments to follow. Do any of you have personal "behind the scenes" photos taken during the filming of any of the Regina films or videos? Do you have any 8mm or 16mm film you shot onboard? Tell us what film or video footage you have and we'll get it onto the big screen that evening.

Reunion Events-Masters and Mates Roundtable time TBD

The concept: Put a bunch of Regina's relief skippers, mates, engineers, and bosuns together in a room and have them talk to each other about Regina's sailing strengths and quirks. Compare notes on standard sail evolutions under different masters. Discuss how well Regina fulfilled her various missions as private yacht, cruise ship, movie set, research vessel, and educational sail trainer.

MALE COMPETITION IN LARGE GROUPS OF WINTERING HUMPBACK WHALES

Introduction

In all oceans, humpback whales, Megaptera novaeangliae, make seasonal migrations of several thousand kilometres (DAWBIN, 1966). The exact routes taken by individuals are not known, but the end points are frequently marked by areas of remarkably high seasonal humpback density. In summer the whales feed in low Arctic and Boreal waters on fish and plankton where the densities and movements of the whales are clearly related to the distributions of their prey (WHITEHEAD et al., 1980). However the most striking concentrations of humpbacks are found on banks or near islands in the tropics where most of the whales winter, but there is no equally obvious cause for these concentrations: little food is

This work was possible because of the generosity of Mrs F. C. PAINE, and D. S. and F. C. WHITEHEAD, who loaned the sloop Elendil. We were also fortunate to receive the support of r/v Regina Maris of the Ocean Research and Education Society, and in particular Dr G. NICHOLS, her master.

Regina In the News-share your clippings.

Many of us managed to clip and save those newspaper article magazine articles that were published locally wherever Regina went. And most of us managed to save one or two PR brochure, as well. Dig out those old files and let us know what you have. Just spread any brochures and articles you have on the kitchen table, take a single picture of all of them, and email us the photo with a brief description of each piece and its date. Once we know what all of you have, we can all work on assembling a collection for viewing at the Reunion.

Reunion Contact Card-sign on more crew

Still there are many Regina crew who have not gotten on the Reunion Mailing List. Whether or not they can attend the reunion in person, we want to connect with them. Here's all the contact information for the Reunion Mailing List in one compact card. (the size is formatted to work as a business card). Download the pdfs via the links below, then hand them, post them or email them to any Regina alum that you don't see on the Crew Timeline.
